

Special achievements:

1. Superspeciality M.Ch. in Pediatric Surgery course started from the academic year 2010 with 2 students and the number of seats per year increased to 4 from the 2012- 2015 session. Approval of the course and the increase in the number of M.Ch. student intake duly obtained from the MCI.
2. The faculty has been invited to give guest lecturers home and abroad, conduct DNB and M.Ch. examinations, interviews, and for consultation at several reputed centers across the country.
3. The M.Ch. trainees have presented their research work both at the national level IAPS annual conference as well as abroad and 4 students have received national-level best paper awards for their research work and presentations.
4. Best poster award received by Senior Research Associate and faculty from IAPS in 2016.