

Mission/ vision statement

Vision:

- The department of pharmacology aims to nurture undergraduate and postgraduate students with knowledge, skills, and attitude essential to make them competent physicians and researchers who are sensitive to their social responsibility and environment.

Mission:

- To set the benchmark for quality education in pharmacology through innovative teaching-learning practices.
- To inculcate best research practices among post-graduate students.
- To uphold ethical principles and transparency in research and patient care.
- To promote rational and scientific basis of therapeutics