Vision of the Department
1.	To be foremost in clinical, research & teaching excellence.
2.	To provide access to advanced state-of-the-art imaging technologies to the community, specially the underprivileged.
3.	To produce future leaders in Radiodiagnosis.
4.	To generate & provide innovative solutions and advanced radiology care to the community.

Mission of the Department
1.	To provide highest quality of clinical care to the people and communities we serve, through proficiency in imaging science, innovation/advancement in imaging research and brilliance in teaching, training and mentoring.
2.	To provide quality & holistic undergraduate (only for women) and postgraduate teaching & training in imaging sciences.