

Special achievements:

Dr. HS Rehan and Dr. LK Gupta are members of Standing National Committee for “National List of Essential Medicines-2021”.

Dr. C. Zorampari, Junior resident in the Department of Pharmacology, Lady Hardinge Medical College participated in “ISRPT-Webicon 2020 held on 10th October 2020 at TMMC & RC, Moradabad” and presented a paper titled: ‘Serum Dipeptidyl peptidase-4 levels in patients of bronchial asthma’ and secured first position in Paper Presentation. In the same conference Dr. Mohit Kher, Senior resident in the Department, presented a paper titled: Effect of metformin and insulin combination on monocyte chemoattractant protein-1 and cathepsin-D in type 2 diabetes mellitus. It had secured second position.

Oral paper presentation was done by Dr. Bhupinder Solanki on 24th November 2018, ISRPTCON, IGIMS, Patna “Effect of inhaled corticosteroids on serum periostin levels in adult patients with mild-moderate asthma” and was awarded First Prize (Ex-Pharm).

Postgraduate students won national level pharmacology quiz at 8th national ISRPT conference held at Late Shri Lakhiram Agrawal GMC, Raigarh, Chhattisgarh 9th – 11th February 2017. In the same conference Dr Jahnvi Maini won second prize in poster presentation titled “ Is e-cigarette a life boat in sinking ship or a new marketing sham for de-addiction?”

Dr. H.S. Rehan is appointed as General Secretary of Indian Society of ISRPT; Co-Chairman Causality assessment committee of Adverse events following immunization.

Dr. H.S. Rehan has been awarded with prestigious UK Commonwealth medical fellowship at Durham University, UK in 2016.