

Vision

- To gain excellence and integrity in Forensic Medicine and Toxicology by balancing the emphasis on teaching, research and Medicolegal services.
- To develop a model centre of excellence in the field of forensic pathology and allied branches of forensic science.

Mission

- To produce the competent physician capable of providing medical-legal service without infringing medical ethics and principles.
- To provide the comprehensive medico legal service to community through innovative programme.