

Patient Advocacy-

Health education activities, being imparted regularly, by medical students and interns, in our field practice areas. Some of these health talks have been video graphed also. The same can be uploaded later on.