

Patient Advocacy:

Department generates awareness among the public regarding the safety and use of the over the counter medicines and disposal of unused medicine. Department appraise the public on ethical and social issues related to their participation in the clinical trials/research work.